Saratoga Restaurant TRY OUR COMBINATION BREAKFAST

We have the best COFFEE with CREAM in this city. REGULAR SPECIAL DINNER TODAY If you feel warm stop at the Saratoga Restaurant, as it is the largest and coclest place in Norwich to eat in. JOHN D. METROPOLIS, Prop.

CALL AND SEE OUR GOODS

None better for the price. CEYLON TEA ..... 1b. 440 ALL OTHER TEAS ..... lb. 30c BAKING POWDER ..... 1b. 15c

UNITED TEA IMPORTERS CO.

218 Main Street

GEORGE G. GRANT Undertaker and Embalmer 32 Providence St., Taftville Prompt attention to day or night calls apr14MWFaw1 Telephone 630

FARMERS

We are ready to co-operate with you. If sufficient supply can be obtained will handle nearby Potatoes exclusively, market price obtained and prompt returns.

JAMES E. MOORE COMMISSION MERCHANT FRUITS AND PRODUCE

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN

TEACHER All String instruments repaired

Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-

THE PLAUT-CADDENCO.

OFFERS TODAY A SPECIAL

LOT OF MEN'S MILITARY WRIST

The most practical gift for the boys that are going to the front. Special price from $3,25 up. See Window Display

WATCHES

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

Plaut-Cadden Building, Norwich Established 1872

1647

One of the historic places in Norwich for over two centuries has been the famous

you can run there in an automobile

A. A. ADAMS

JOHN A. DUNN Our Saponaceous

Tooth Powder, 25c

brush. It's the Tooth Powder de luxe.

Druggist, 50 Main Street

Our Corned Beef includes little Lean Rumps at only 22c a lb.

NATIVE FOWL AND CHICKEN FRESH GREEN CORN SHELL BEANS GREEN PEPPERS

People's Market 6 Franklin Street

JUSTIN HOLDEN, Proprietor

American House

Special Rates to Theatre Troupes. Traveling Men, Etc.
Livery Connection Shetucket Street FARREL & SANDERSON, Props.

On account of increase in price of to-bacco, the Whitestone Cigar will us sold from now on at $35 per 1,000. J. F. CONANT angle 11 Franklin St.

Heavy rains have caused railway lines to be washed away in western Australia. Two trains were derailed and 18 injured.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Aug. 17, 1917.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 7.16 this

Thursday was Saint Joachim's day During August the planet Neptune s very near Saturn in Cancer.

By tomorrow the day's length will have decreased an even hour and a dinary years in the swamps below Fort Point. The Parker Genealogy is among books recently acquired by the Otis

Dr. Lynes' office will be closed until Sept. 4th.—adv.

vesterday. Wild cherry trees along the country oads are disfigured with nests of the tent caterpillars. Yesterday was a day to the golf-er's taste, and there were many mem-hers at the club house.

Vacation tourists yesterday had nothing on the stay-at-homes who reveled in Thursday's fine weather.

The 22d annual Fowler family re-nion is to be held at the town hall Middlefield, Conn., Wednesday, Aug.

A Saybrook correspondent mentions that Supt. G. G. Rudd made his last visit at the carbarns Tuesday as an official of the road.

Granges in surrounding towns are beginning to get interested in the 63d annual county fair, to be held in Norwich next month.

The license fee on all female dogs has been raised from $5 to $10 and certain changes in the law are widen-ing the dog wardens' power.

Charles E. Penniman of Middletown caught a seven and a half pound black fish recently off Griswold's Island, be-tween South Lyme and Crescent Beach.

Former Norwich residents, Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Bromley, now of the Methodist church at Wilsonville, will reach heir golden wedding anniversary Nov.

Dr. Richards' office will be closed until Sept. 4th.—adv.

A Hartford paper noted Thursday hat Mrs. Edwin W. Higgins of Nor-vich, wife of former Congressman was a visitor at the state Wednesday.

Is spending the season at the inn, is to give a public reading at Pomfret CAMP DEWEY CADETS Neighborhood house.

An Ellington resident, Mrs. Maud Pomeroy Kimball, started Thursday for North Bethel, Me., for a two weeks' tramping trip with the Appa-achian Club of Boston. Next Sunday is the communion Sun-married women of the parish.

That money may be sent to the American expeditionary forces in Europe at the same rate by postoffice money order as it may be sent domestically is announced in the daily bulletin of the postal department.

That money may be sent to the destruction that will long be remembered by the residents of that section of the county. In regard to this invasion of property and orchards the New London Day says:

Residents of the borough were deeply interested yesterday in the

Those who are exempted from the were set out by Groton borough about ten years ago are not doing well. They have been attacked by an insect for which nobody can find a cure. The eatalpa trees planted at the same time are not large but seem healthy.

Sixteen Portuguese men, all friendly ADAMS TAVERN

The troller will get you there from the city in about fifteen minutes or the city in about fifteen minutes or escape the draft if they are called.

There are now in use in the Norwich city water system about 1,300 meters which are read quarterly, and four months of the year (March, June, September and December) are practitally consumed in these readings and pecial calls by Inspector Frederick A warning against the unlawful wearing of the uniform of the United States army, navy or marine corps has been issued from Washington. The penalty for violation of the law quoted is a fine not exceeding $300 and imprisonment not exceeding six months Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Bessie T. Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Wilcox, of Stonington, to John Stewart, formerly a New London newspaper reporter, who enlisted in the navy shortly after the U. S. declaration of war as a first class seaman.

s a first class seaman It was brought out at the state firemen's convention in Hartford on Wednesday that during the last three months there have been sixty-five fires in grain elevators in this state. at an average of $80,000 each, in spite of the high degree of efficiency of the t an average of $80,000 each, in spile of the high degree of efficiency of the state fire fighting organization.

To Inquirer about Rockville collegi-ate balloon school: During their pre-liminary study, college aviators and balloon pilots are paid $33 per month, with shelter, clothing, etc., after two months they are sent to training camps and paid $100 while training; then $2,000 while in service as first lieuten-

Saugrkraut for Winter Use. Many people are wondering what new are going to do with this year's they are going to do with this year's crop of cabbage. A part of it certainly can be used for making sauerkraut, which is a product much relished by many, and one which is very easily

PERSONALS

Charles Noyes of Poquonnoc spen Vednesday in Norwich.

Mrs. Mary Presby of Norwich visiting her niece, Mrs. Charles Chase, at Thompson. Miss Abby Gallup of Norwich is spending the week end with Miss Louise Avery of Groton.

Harry Markoff has returned after passing his annual vacation at the Doean View, Block Island, Miss Mazle Stamm of Ann street is entertaining for a few days Miss Florence Beebe of Hadlyme.

Charles Tingley is to move from Norwich to the home of his father, George W. Tingley in Mystic Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Cassidy of Norwich were at The Oaks, Ashford, for a brief stay early in the week.

Mrs. John S. Hartie of Boswell avenue has returned from a two weeks visit at her home in Naugatuck. There were many new arrivals of summer boarders from the big city

Miss Betty La Pierre has returned to her home in Norwich after spend-ing several weeks at Lord's Point. The Misses Stanley of Washington street have returned from a visit with Frank J. Stanley of Bradley Point.

ter, Pa., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shaw, 56 Oak venue is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John . Sullivan, of Riverview avenue, New

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wood of Ches-

Mrs. J. A. Glard and son, Henry, of Ware, Mass., are spending the week with Mrs. Giard's father, William Kel-ley of Yantic street.

Miss Marguerite Farrow of Poquon-ooc is entertaining her cousins, Miss Ella McCollum and Miss Ruth Mc-

ollum, of Mansfield

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kinne, who have been the guests of their niece, Dr. Lil-fan M. Dynes, for the past two months, have returned to their home in Bos-

Dr. Lillian M. Lynes has left for a wo weeks' stay at Indian Lake in the Adirondack mountains. On her return she will be accompanied by her mother who has been spending the summer

Mrs. H. M. Olimehardt of Main street and Miss May Corcoran and Miss Helen Corcoran have returned to this city after a few days' visit with relatives in Wonsocket and Providence, R. I.

Lawrence Perkins and Herbert E. awrence of Norwich, who spent unday with the former's sister, Mrs. capitol Wednesday.

At Pomfret this (Friday) evening
Mrs. Bela P. Learned of Norwich, who

At Pomfret this (Friday) evening
Mrs. Bela P. Learned of Norwich, who

ARE SOMEWHAT UNRULY

Poquonnoc Will Long Remember Their Visit and Will be Ready for Them When They Come Back. day of the Rosary and Scapular so-siety of St. Patrick's church, which numbers particularly most of the The majority of these complaints laints about the depredations of the come from the Kitemaug and Gales A correspondent advises: After you have gathered the garden vegetables, give the hens an open season on the bugs and insects, the denizens of the old vines and other waste vegetation.

Camp Dewey cadets who marched through here 300 strong and the in-those who are exempted from the military conscription by the district ordered will be given a bronze button issued by the government which may be worn in the coat lapel. The buttons are being received in Connecticult towns.

The schooner Clara Davis, which is t

WILL TAKE OVER PASTORATE SOON

Rev. Arthur F. Purkiss to Occupy Pulpit at Central Baptist Church on September 16th as Pastor-Formal Notification of His Acceptance Announced at Mid-Week Meeting Thursday Night...

REV. ARTHUR F. PURKISS At the midweek prayer meeting at the Central Baptist church ce Thurs-day evening formal announcement was made that Rev. Arthur 2. Purkiss, who has accepted a unanimous call ex-tended by the church, will on Septem-ber 16th take over the pastorate here.

ning. The letter follows:

Grindstone, N. Y., Aug. 13, 1917. To the Central Baptist Church, Norwich, Conr ..: I accept the invitation given by you to become your pastor, and hope to begin my work in your midst Sunday. Sept. 16, 1917. This step is taken with the profound conviction that your action was the call of God to me. Relying upon that call, I look forward with joy and gladness to our new relationship. Yours in Christ

ARTHUR F. PURKISS. Rev. Mr. Purkiss began his pastorate in the First Baptist church of James-town on the first Sunday in November, 1914, succeeding Rev. Dr. George Caleb

HAS DELIVERED SUNDAY PAPERS THIRTY YEARS Fred F. Nowatsky Hasn't Missed a

Sunday in All That Time.

what applies there were. Many of the west Side, Washington street, and the bush of the work of the wor

Many now members have been re-ceived and there has been substantial progress in all the departments of the church and Sunday school. Mr. Purkiss has also taken a promi-nent part in civic work in Jamestown

the history of the Jamestown church since going there three years ago. He was one of the leaders in the movement that resulted in the organization of a committee of one hundred and took an active interest in the meetings of the committee last winter when the commission-manager charter was drafted.

Rev. Arthur F. Purkiss was born at Lexington, Mich., on Dec. 4, 1872, but spent his boyhood at Port Huron, Mich.
After completing his preliminary education, he entered Kalamazoo college, from which he was graduated. He then from which he was graduated. He then took a course in the Divinity school of the Chicago university. His first charge was at Green Bay, Wis. He was married in that city and remained only a snort time, when he was called to the First Baptist church at Sharon, Pa. He remained at Sharon for four years and was then called to the First Baptist church at Elgin, Ili., where he had been for six years before going to the financial standing. He started

There will be surprise and regret in $358.96 and it earned interest of and out of the First Baptist church at the resignation of its pastor, Rev. Ar- Corresponding secretary Beriah B. thur F. Purkiss, who has accepted a call to the Central Eaptist church of Norwich, Conn. In a brief pastorate of less than three years, Mr. Purkiss has not only won for himself the respect and affection of his own church but has become one of the leader in e has already resigned as paster of the First Baptistychurch in Jamestown, N. Y. At present Rev. Mr. Purkiss is at Grindstone, N. Y., where he is spending a few weeks rest.

In the absence of Hon. Allyn L. Brown, clerk of the Central Baptist church, Judge Lucius Brown presented the letter at the meeting last everying. The letter follows: has had large congregations, whether the services were held in a downtown heatre or in the new church which took the place of the one that burned just before he came here. He is active n his pastoral work and has impressed all who knew him as a year. all who knew him as a real man, con-secrated to his work and free of any ham or pretense. Rev. Mr. Purkiss early identified him-elf with the progressive forces of this city. He has labored for better schools office who would carry out real reforms. His advice has been sought in many public movements and he can the side of the people against any of the influences that so easily swerve weaker with them at dinner time.

town on the first Sunday in November, 1914, succeeding Rev. Dr. George Caleb Moor, who went to the Baptist Temple in Brooklyn. The church building had been destroyed by fire the previous winter and when Mr. Purkiss took up his work there the congregation was holding services in the Winter Garden theatre. The handsome new ediffice that now replaces the burned structure was dedicated on the following Easter Sunday.

The pastorate of Rev. Mr. Purkiss has been one of the most successful in the accomplishment of high with them at dinner time. Henry Williams of company A sent servetings from Jacksony's and expectally to Jamesto any city, and especially to Jamesto any city any despectant to a loss and the with them at dispersions to any city any city any city any city

GRACE MEMORIAL BAPTIST SUNDAY SCOOL PICNIC

Children Taken to Ocean Beach by Special Trolley. The Grace Memorial Baptist church relig. observe the 30th anniversary of his Sunday school gave its annual outing was a member of Company G, said antrance into business as a newsdealer. Thursday at Ocean Beach. The school the high cost of living would keep Wr. Nowatsky has established a record that will be hard to equal for he has delivered Sunday payers for thirty party at the beach those were small be would be with his old comselve and was attended by members and the formation of the president of th

HORACE BURDICK- CHOSEN PRESIDENT BY 26th North Stonington Man Elected at An-

. nual Reunion of Regiment.

Secretary and Treasurer — N. Doug-las Sevin, Norwich.
Corresponding Secretary—Berlah B.
Champlin, New Haven.
George A. Haskell took up the col-lection and it amounted to $12.58.
Secretary and Treasurer N. Douglas Sevin read the reports of the last meeting and also gave a statement of the financial standing. He started a had been for six years before going to Jamestown.

Regarding the resignation of Rev. Regarding the resignation of Rev. Mr. Purkiss as pastor of the Jamestown Morning and the total was $1.25 and interest $6.06 and the total was $167.72. Expenses town church, the Jamestown Morning Post says editorially:

The monument fund is Champlin of New Haven who is $8 to Merrythought Farm, Columbia years old said that he sent out invitations to 96 comrades and only two 20 Obed G. Knight, Bridgeton. were returned and those had been mailed to Comrade Coleman of Com-pany H and Edwin York in Keller, Mich. He said that since the last gather-ng there have been five deaths as ollows: Israel W. Cone, Company I, Jan. 16, 1916, aged 77 years, Edward Havens, Company I, Jan. 16,

1916, aged 78 years,
Benjamin F, Lamphere, Company
B, April 11, 1917, aged 78 years,
Rev. Henry G, Gay, Company F,
April 13, 1917, aged 81 years,
Orville M, Briggs, Company H, May
16, 1917, aged 76 years,
Thomas Sizer, Company I, Sept. 16.

Thomas Sizer, Company I, Sept. 16 and for a more efficient city government as a member of the committee of the hundred. His voice was raised tracts from letters from comrades against the offenses of the common touncil jast year and he has courage-busing advocated candidates for public ling were heard from:

William F. Eccleston of company H wrote from Cleveland that he would not be able to attend on account of his health but he sent his regards to with them at dinner time.

Henry Williams of company A sent sreetings from Jacksony e and expressed the wish that the reunion

CLOSE RACE IN

STORRS EGG CONTEST. Redding Ridge Pen Laid 50 Eggs and Won First Place.

North Stonington Man Elected at Annual Reunion of Regiment.

Horace Burdick of North Stonington was unanimously chosen president of the 26th Regiment, C. V., at their 54th reunion held in Buckingham Memorial Thursday. Many of the veterans and their wives and daughters attended and all enjoyed a most delightful time.

The business session of the reunion was called to order by Secretary N. Douglas Sevin, who in the absence of John A. Conklin, president, asked Stephen A. Congdon of Westerly, who is second vice president, to preside, Mr. Congdon took the chair but asked to be excused owing to ill health. George Brayton of Stonington, third vice president then took the chair.

L. O. Smith of Norwich, G. A. Haskell of Jewett City and Chauncey Morse of Putnam were named as a nominating committee presented the following names who were unanimously exceted:

President—Horace Burdick, North Stonington.

Vice Presidents—Stephen A. Congdon. Westerly: George Brayton, Stonington; and George A. Haskell, Jewett City.

Secretary and Treasurer — N. Douglas Sevin, Norwich.

Secretary and Treasurer — N. Douglas Sevin, Norwich.

Coversponding Secretary—Berlah B. Cov

wildrawals, the management now has in hand applications from more than 10 breeders who wish to take their places. One of these, a New York state breeder, has applied for the third sucessive year.

The three best pens in each of the rincipal varieties are as follows:

Barred Plymouth Rocks. 6 Fairfields Poultry Farms, Short Falls, N. H. 1 Merritt M. Clark, Brookfield

Center, Conn. Michigan Poultry Farm, Lan-sing, Mich. White Wyandottes. R. I. 19 Joseph Moreau, Wallum Lake, R. I. 29 Jay H. Ernisse, Webster, N.

Rhode Island Reds. 48 Pequot Poultry Farm, South-White Leghorns.

73 A. P. Robinson, Calverton, N. 60 J. O. LeFevre, New Paltz, N. 1672 80 Hilltop Poultry Yards, Suffield. Miscellaneous. 1663 Cloyes & Sullivan (Buff Wyan-dottes), Hartford, Conn. . . .

dottes), Hartford, Conn. 1520 Holliston Hill Poultry Farm (White Rocks), Holliston Hill, Mass. 1374 ingtons), Bridgeton, R. I. .. 1389 HIS FOOT CRUSHED UNDER FREIGHT TRAIN

Sixteen Year Old New London Boy

Found Beside Tracks.

George Sullivan of 40 Warren street, New London, 16 years old, had his right foot crushed under a freight train in the rear of the custom house in New London shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday night. He was removed to the Lawrence hospital, where his foot was amputated later. Railroad officials did not know the Ames E. Slack of Groton and a member of company A said he could not hear well and finds it hard to read so it would be useless to go to the reunion. He is 10 years age. He is to resome but he finds solace in religion.

the boy lying beside the track and gave the signal for the train to stop Employes of the custom house summoned the ambulance, Lawrence hospital, where it was found that it would be impossible to save the foot and later it was taken of just above the ankle. The freight which injured Sullivan was an extra west bound train.
Sullivan is a son of John Sullivan yard foreman for the F. H. & A. H

Chappell Co., and was employed a the New London Ship and Engine Co ROQUE COURTS NEARLY All That Remains to Be Done is Installation of Lights. Everything at the local roque courts is in rendiness for the opening of the tournament next Monday with the ex-ception of installing the lights at the

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

322 Main Street Chamber of Commerce Building 'Phone 238-2 Lady Assistant

Ever Ready Batteries

Dry Cells, Flash Lights, Boat and Automobile Supplies, Mirrors, Lenses, Lamps, Oars, Rowlocks, Anchors, Rope,

129 Main St., Norwich, Conn. Thermos Bottles, Garden Hose, Fruit Jars, Wire Frames for Fruit Jars,

Ice Cream Freezers NOTICE

PRESTON BRIDGE WILL BE CLOS-ED FOR REPAIRS UNTIL FURTH ER NOTICE. By Order Scientmen.

Dr. J. M. KING

May Building

Chelsea Savings Bank Norwich Conn., Aug. 6, 1917. The board of Directors of the Ban and after the fifteenth of September

FRANK HEMPSTEAD, Treasurer READY FOR TOURNEYY TEAMING AND TRUCKING DONE VERY PROMPTLY AND AT REASONABLE PRICES A. D. LATHROP

> Phone 175 DRS. L. F and A. J. LaPIERRE

287 Main Street, Norwich, Conn. Office Hours: a. m. to 3 p. m. by appointment Sundays excepted

ULLK 122 Prospect St., Phone 511

CED The Pinno Tuner,

ROBERT J. COCHRANE GAS FITTING,

PLUMBING, STEAM FITTING ashington Sq., Washington Building

PLUMBING AND GASFITTING

Agent for N. B. O. Sheet Packing